"We are very committed toward good functioning power plants," President Joko Widodo exclaimed in Yogyakarta on 15 June 2015 at the inauguration of the 35,000 MW project. It will raise the economic condition significantly for Indonesia, he added. Budi Santoso, Head of PERHAPI (Association of Indonesian Mining Professionals), explains that this program will mostly rely on coal-fired power plants or PLTUs, and will require approximately 150 million metric tons [of coal] per year, equivalent to half of the country's coal exports. (Republika.co.id).
